

Application Guidelines for International Students

- 2023 Spring Semester -

한국학중앙연구원 한국학대학원
THE GRADUATE SCHOOL OF KOREAN STUDIES, THE ACADEMY OF KOREAN STUDIES

1. About the Graduate School of Korean Studies

The Graduate School of Korean Studies is an affiliated institution of the Academy of Korean Studies("AKS"), which operates under the Ministry of Education. It was established in 1980 to nurture scholars contributing to the development and globalization of Korean studies, through a liaison between the AKS' research capacity and graduate education.

As a research-oriented institution in the fields of humanities and social sciences pertinent to Korea, the Graduate School of Korean Studies has maintained its commitment to the highest quality teaching and research through eminent professors' close mentoring of students for the past 40 years. Our graduates are playing pivotal role in the various educational and research organizations of Korean studies around the world with their academic excellence. The statistics show that 77.2% of our international graduates with a doctorate conferred between 2010 and 2019 are working as professors or full-time instructors in the field.

Currently, approximately 250 students, including around 120 international students from 30 different countries, are enrolled in a Master's or a doctoral degree program at the Graduate School of Korean Studies, the Academy of Korean Studies.

Scholarship

- Tuition fees are fully waived for all international students.
- 80.18% of international students benefit from the Government Grant, being provided with the monthly stipend of 800,000KRW for a year, renewable upon evaluation.
- Opportunities for division assistants, dormitory assistants and research assistants are available.

Education	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ In Feb 2022 we were certified as excellent in the IEQAS(International Education Quality Assurance System) of the Ministry of Education for our international-student-friendly and supportive environments. ○ A 5:1 student-faculty ratio enables close one-on-one guidance of students by professors. ○ Students are encouraged to participate in the AKS'research projects because we, as an affiliate of a research institution, put a high value on links between research and education. ○ Korean language courses specifically designed for academic purposes are available free of charge. ○ Various programs such as tutoring, writing clinic, cultural activities, and airfare subsidy for presentation in overseas conferences support student's academic performance.
Environments	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ On-campus dormitory accommodations are available at the rate of 543,000KRW per semester(six months), double occupancy. ○ A gym and a table tennis room are available free of charge.

- The official transcript must show one of the following information for the whole period of study:
 - ① CGPA(Cumulative Grade Point Average) and a scale (e.g. 3.7/4.0)
 - ② Score percentile (e.g. 83/100)
 - ③ A rank at the school (e.g. 5th among 50 students)
- If a transcript does not include the above information, applicants should submit an official document issued by the university describing the university's grading system.
- Successful applicants who are finally selected are required to submit an original copy with an apostille by post.

F. An Abstract of a Master's Degree Thesis Written in Korean (If applicable)

- Even though the thesis is not written in Korean, an abstract translated into Korean should be submitted.

G. A Letter of Recommendation

- The recommender should be a professor who has taught the applicant during his/her undergraduate or graduate program or a faculty member of the university where the applicant studied who is in the position to evaluate the applicant's academic competence.
- ※ A recommendation letter written by an instructor from a language school or a supervisor at work is not acceptable.
- A recommender must fill in the prescribed form (Attachment 4) in Korean or in English.
- Once an applicant completes the online application including information about his/her recommender, the Graduate School of Korean Studies sends an email to the recommender to request a letter of recommendation.

- A recommendation letter should be received by the deadline.

- Apostilles of the diploma and official transcript should be submitted.

2) Students who graduated from institutions in China

- Verification of degree and academic records issued by China Academic Degrees & Graduate Education Development Center (CDGDC) or China Higher Education Student Information and Career Center (CHESICC/CHSI) should be submitted.
- Credentials Report should be issued in English, otherwise a notarized translation should be provided.
- Online application for the above verification is also possible at Confucius Institute in Seoul (renew.kongzi.co.kr, ✉cis88@cis.or.kr, ☎02-554-2688).

3) Students who graduated from institutions in non-signatory countries of the Apostille Convention

- Verification of the diploma and official transcript by a Korean consulate in a country where the university an applicant was graduated from is located or by a consulate of a country where the university an applicant was graduated from is located in Korea should be submitted.

4) Students who graduated from institutions in Korea

- Verification other than a certificate of graduation and official transcript is not required.

8. Important Notes for Applicants

- A. Applicant's information provided in the application form must be authentic and truthful. If provided information turns out to be false or untruthful, the applicant's admission can be revoked.

- B. Additional documents might be requested, if they are considered necessary for the admission process.
- C. The scores/grades of the admission are not open to the public including applicants themselves.
- D. Documents submitted will not be returned to the applicants.
- E. All of the certificates should be written in Korean or in English, otherwise they need to be translated and notarized.

9. Other Information

- A. Tuition-Exemption Scholarship is offered to all international students during their coursework period unless they are placed under academic probation or disciplinary actions are taken against them.
- B. Selective international students who showed excellence in admission scores are provided with the Government Grant.
- C. Students should pay their boarding fees and other living expenses at their own expense.
